

Very good	Good	Some concern	Significant concern	Lost
Values are in very good, near pristine condition with little or no damage. Values are likely to be maintained for the foreseeable future, provided that effective management measures continue to be implemented.	Values are in good condition with little damage. Values are likely to be essentially maintained for the foreseeable future, provided that effective management measures continue to be implemented.	There is some concern about values being compromised, in poor condition or with major damage. Values are likely to decline further in the absence of additional effective management measures.	There is significant concern about values being very compromised, in very poor condition or with significant damage. Values are likely to decline further and potentially be lost in the absence of significant additional effective management measures.	Values are presumed lost – no longer present or damaged beyond recovery.